- Understanding Japanese candlestick formations
- The optimal times to trade
- Developing your trading plan

2. Fundamental Analysis

- Understanding the macroeconomic factors that influence exchange rates
- Understanding the driving forces in a economy
- Identifying market correlations
- Interpreting the Commitment Of Traders Report

3. Technical Analysis

- Accurately read & chart price action
- Finding and executing high probable setups
- Drawing and interpreting Fibonacci ratios
- Using signals generated by the Ichimoku indicator

4. Risk Management

- Using known systematic risk management techniques
- Testing the profitability of your technical strategy

The best way for you to learn and retain +90% of this material is to get active and do the real thing. Its like going to the gym, you can't gain muscle by reading how to exercise; you have to actually show up and put in the work. Be sure to download the Trader Things trading glossary to aid you as you progress through this course.
